Section 7. Accounting System: The Board of Directors shall provide for a complete accounting system which, among other things, and subject to applicable laws and rules and regulations of any regulatory body, shall conform to the accounting system as may from time to time be designated by the Administrator of the Rural Utilities Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, or any successor organization.

Section 8. Construction and Interpretation: Whenever Article, Section and Paragraph headings are included in these By-Laws they are included for ease of reading only and they are not intended or to be interpreted as limiting any provision of the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VII. PATRONS, NET PROCEEDS AND NON-PROFIT OPERATION

Section 1. Patrons and Non-Profit Operation: The Cooperative shall, at all times, be operated on a cooperative non-profit basis for the mutual benefit of its patrons. No interest or dividend shall be paid or payable by the Cooperative on any capital furnished by patrons. For purposes of these By-Laws, Patron is defined in Article IX hereof. In the furnishing of any telecommunications service, this Cooperative's operations shall be so conducted that all patrons will through their patronage furnish capital for this Cooperative. In order to induce patronage and to insure that this Cooperative will operate on a non-profit basis, this Cooperative is obligated to account on a patronage basis to all of its patrons the following calculation, the sum of which shall be deemed "patrons net proceeds": (i) the total amounts received and receivable by the Cooperative in conjunction with or for the furnishing of telecommunications services subscribed to by the patron or provided in conjunction with such subscribed services or for the benefit of such patron (including, without limitation, payments from other telecommunications companies, universal service funds (or any successor program), capital gains or distributions realized or received in connection with investments in entities related to the provision of telecommunications services to patrons, and interest and dividend income on short-term investments), less (ii) the total amount of operating costs and all expenses which are deductions properly chargeable against the total proceeds of this Cooperative (including, without limitation, applicable taxes and allocations of reasonable overhead costs and expenses), less (iii) the amount required to be set aside for educational purposes pursuant to the provisions of SDCL Chapter 47-16 and Section 2 of this Article VII. (All other revenue consisting of miscellaneous revenue or non-operating income, after deduction for related expense, may at the Board of Directors' discretion, be allocated to patrons according to their patronage or not allocated to patrons and instead placed in a permanent capital account.) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Board of Directors may divide the business of the Cooperative into one (1) or more various and different departments or pools using rules of reasonable application so that amounts received and receivable from the operation of the Cooperative business will be considered proceeds to one (1) or more various departments or pools and each of such departments or pools shall have operating costs and other expenses or deductions properly chargeable to the total proceeds of said department or pool. All patrons' net proceeds at the moment of receipt by the Cooperative from the patron or other lawful sources are received with the understanding that they are furnished as capital; and this Cooperative is obligated to pay by credits to a capital account designated as “revolving capital” for each patron, all such amounts determined to be “patrons’ net proceeds” and such allocation may be made by departments or pools. All such amounts credited to the “revolving capital” of any patron shall have the same status as though they had been paid to the patron in cash in pursuance of a legal obligation to do so and the patron, in consideration of similar subscriptions by others in the same business year does irrevocably subscribe and agree to then furnish this Cooperative corresponding amounts for “revolving capital”, without any notice or call.

The patrons of this Cooperative, by subscribing, dealing and receiving telecommunications services from the Cooperative, acknowledge that the terms and provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws shall and do constitute a contract between this Cooperative and each such patron, and both the Cooperative and the patron are bound by such contract, as fully as though each patron had individually signed a separate instrument containing such terms and provisions.

Section 2. Association Net Proceeds: In accordance with the requirements of SDCL Chapter 47-16, an amount equal to 1% of said net proceeds shall be set aside as an educational fund to be used in teaching or promoting cooperative organization or principles in a manner prescribed by the Board of Directors and such funds shall for all purposes except the computation of net proceeds be deemed an expense of operation of this Cooperative.

Section 3. Apportionment of Patrons’ Net Proceeds: The total of the Patrons’ Net Proceeds shall be apportioned insofar as permitted by law between the several patrons on the basis of their respective subscription and receipt of a telecommunications patronage of this Cooperative and may be apportioned on the basis of their respective patronage of and the net proceeds resulting from the operation of the various pools or departments of this Cooperative and from various kinds, qualities, grades, quantities and values of services or equipment provided; that there shall be no distinction or discrimination as between patrons who are members and patrons who are not members.

Section 4. Payment of Patrons’ Net Proceeds: Each patron’s share of the Patrons’ Net Proceeds shall be, as the case may be, credited in accord with these By-Laws to an account or accounts for each such patron (each an “Allocated Capital Reserve Account”) as “Revolving Capital” as hereafter set forth. The books and records of this Cooperative shall be set up and kept in such manner that at the end of each fiscal year the amount of Patrons’ Net Proceeds, if any, is clearly reflected and credited in an appropriate record to the Allocated Capital Reserve Account of each patron, and the Cooperative shall within a reasonable time after the close of the fiscal year notify each patron of the amount of “Patrons Net Proceeds” so credited to such patron.

Section 5. Authority to Compute and Apportion: All determinations as to which categories of revenue and expense shall be used in the computation of Patrons’ Net Proceeds as well as all determinations involving the proper basis of apportioning the Patrons’ Net Proceeds as between the several patrons shall be determined by this Cooperative for the fiscal year for which such determinations are made; and such determinations, when made in good faith and according to what the Cooperative considers to be in accord with proper procedures and sound accounting principles and proper construction of the provisions of this ARTICLE and in the Cooperative's corporate purpose, all insofar as law allows, but in accord with the rules of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall be conclusive upon both this Cooperative and each and all of its patrons. Nothing contained in these By-Laws shall prohibit amending this ARTICLE VII in whole or in part so long as no patron is deprived of any prior rights that have vested which vest prior to such amendment or amendments.

ARTICLE VIII. REVOLVING CAPITAL

Section 1. Purpose: This Cooperative shall establish and maintain revolving capital for the purpose of acquiring and maintaining capital, to supplement its capital and lawful reserves adequate to finance its properties and business; provided that said credits to revolving capital shall be deemed to represent contributions by the patrons to the revolving capital as of the dates when the amount for which said credits were issued or transferred to said accounts.

Section 2. Operation and Contributions: This Cooperative may accept contributions to its revolving capital from any patron approved by the Board of Directors; and this Cooperative shall issue to such person a revolving capital credit on the books of the Cooperative in the principal amount equal to the amount of the contribution. Proper entries shall be made on the books and records of this Cooperative as required by these By-Laws and the Cooperative may issue revolving capital certificates to evidence the revolving capital credits and such certificates may be in such form and contain such terms and conditions not inconsistent with this Article as the Board of Directors may prescribe. Contributions to the revolving capital need not be segregated from, but on the contrary may be invested or co-mingled with, any other assets of this Cooperative. No dividend, interest or other income shall be declared or paid on account of any credits in revolving capital or on any capital. If and when the Revolving Capital shall have been impaired (that is to say, whenever the sum of the principal amounts of all Revolving Capital credits then issued and outstanding shall exceed the balance in the Revolving Capital), then the Board of Directors may reduce the principal amount of any or all such Revolving capital credits as said Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may designate so that the sum of the principal amounts of all Revolving Capital credits shall be not less than the balance then in the Revolving Capital, all as may be more particularly provided by said Board of Directors. This Cooperative shall have a first lien on each Revolving Capital Credit for all indebtedness of the holder thereof to this Cooperative.

Section 3. Transfers: Assignments of revolving capital credit shall be made only on the books of this Cooperative, either by the record holder in person or by his Attorney-in-fact and only with the consent of the Board of Directors and only to successors in interest or successors in occupancy in all or part of such patrons premises served by this Cooperative; provided that credits shall remain subject to this Cooperative's lien thereon.

Section 4. Retirement: If, at any time prior to dissolution or liquidation, the Board of Directors shall determine that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby, revolving capital then credited to patrons' accounts may be retired in full or in part.

(The Board of Directors shall determine the method, basis, priority and order of retirement, if any, for all amounts furnished as capital.)

Section 5. Early Retirement to Deceased Persons: Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, shall have the power at any time upon the death of any patron, who was a natural person, if the legal representatives of his or her estate shall request in writing that the capital credit to such person be retired prior to the time such capital would otherwise be retired under the provision of these By-Laws, to retire capital credits to such patron immediately upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors, acting under policies of general application and the legal representative of such patron's estate shall agree upon; provided, however that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby. The death of either spouse who is a party to a joint membership shall constitute a termination of said membership and shall be treated in all manner as the death of any other patron for early retirement of patronage capital as provided for in these By-Laws.

ARTICLE IX. PATRON DEFINED

“Patron” means, as to any one transaction, any member or non-member who purchases telecommunications products or services provided in the normal course of the business of this Cooperative to its members. The term “Patron” does not include a telecommunications company which (i) pays any fees or settlements to this Cooperative; (ii) is purchasing such telecommunications products or services primarily for purposes of resale to a third-party or to the public at large; or (iii) purchases any products or services from this Cooperative other than local telephone exchange services, internet service provider services, cable television programming services and other consumer products.

ARTICLE X. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of this Cooperative shall commence on the first day of January in each year and shall end on the last day of December in the same year.

ARTICLE XI.

By-Laws may be adopted and amended by the Board of Directors. Any By-Law adopted or amended by the Board of Directors shall be reported at the next regular member meeting. Any such By-Law shall be at any time subject to amendment or repeal by the members.
